

Andersonville

John Ebenezer Warren

Wauwatosa, Wis. - Westbrook, Me. (1840 - 1915)

words & music by Winfield Shaw Clark

Largo $\text{♩} = 52$

♩ half-sung, ad lib.

voice follows piano

Ten miles out of Gun - town
A sore got in - fect - ed

mp

mp

con ped.

4
Gen' - ral For - rest came,
on my right foot - sole.

cut our line to piec - es
I knew I'd soon have gang - rene

6
in the pour - ing rain.
in that cess - pool hole.

I was tak - en pris - o - ner,
I got through to sick - bay...

8
bare foot and ill,
man - y had tried...

sent by train to Georg - ia,
and each day doz - ens sick - ened,

10

to An - der - son - ville.
- sick - ened and died.

12

Men who looked like corp - ses fought for scraps of meat.
But I did pass mus - ter at the first pa - role,

mp

14

Peo - ple took no no - tice of mur - ders on the Street.
and in a north - ern hos - pice my foot - was healed back whole.

16

And if one should stum - ble too near the line,
Yes, I re - en - list - ed; so would have you

18

D.S. to Coda

the re - bells gave no warn - ing and bul - lets would whine.
to save our no - ble Un - ion, to car - ry it through.

Coda

mp

20

Stand by the Un - ion, may it flou - rish strong and 23

true. Free - - - dom for all men, of ev' - ry

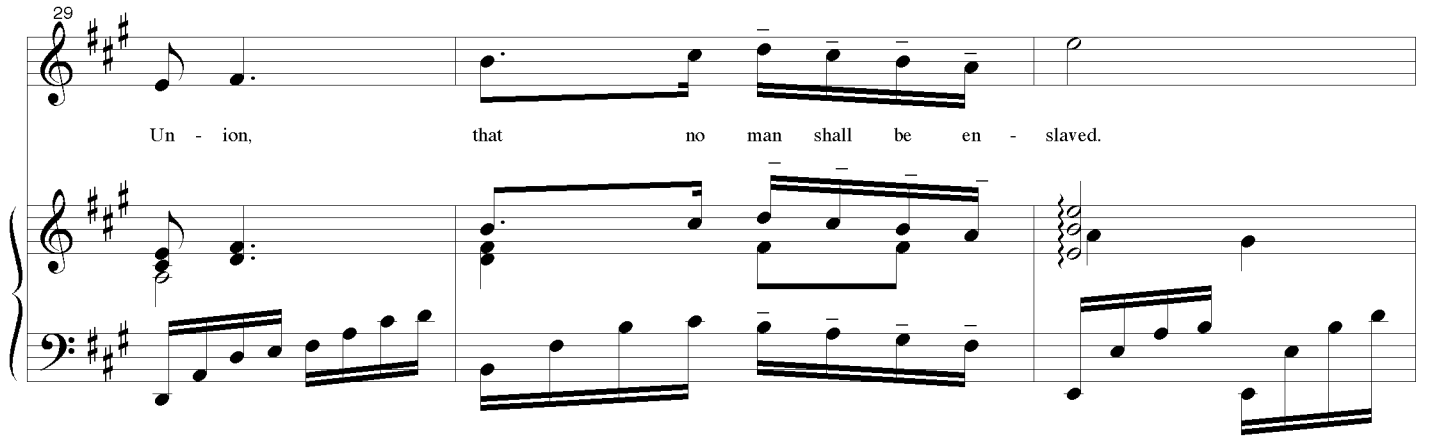

26

poco rit.

na - tion, creed and view. Stand by the

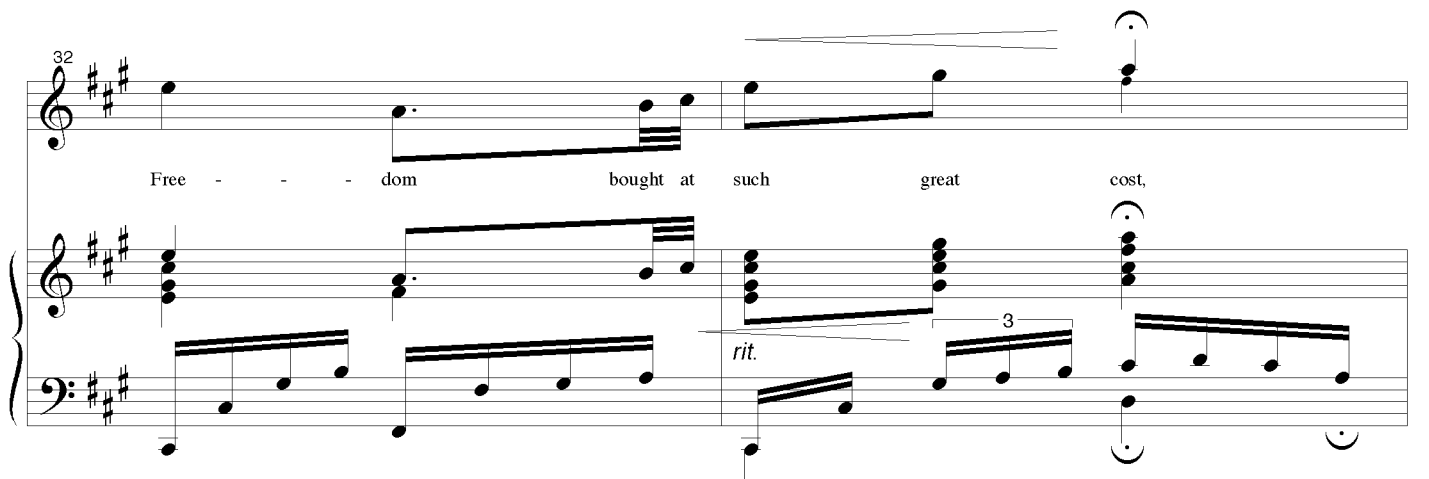

poco rit.

29

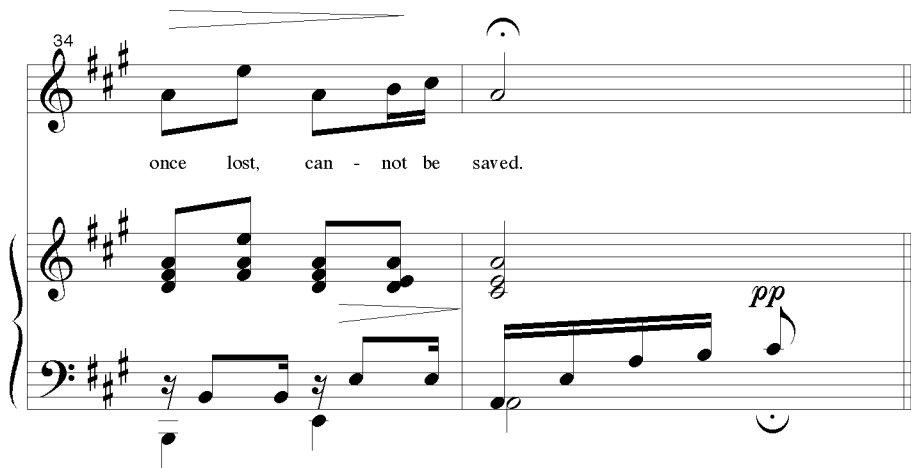

Un - ion, that no man shall be en - slaved.

32

Free - - - dom bought at such great cost,

34

once lost, can - not be saved.